ABOUT ME

Herbert L. Nussle has litigated hundreds of property subrogation cases, investigated thousands of complex commercial and residential property claims, and has provided legal advice in thousands of other matters. Herb has structured the firm's investigative approach, which has led to millions in recoveries and damages.

Herb applies his previous experience in risk management and accounting to his practice. Herb works collaboratively and shares responsibility with clients to ensure our services and resulting operations are sensible to goals and can maintain profitability. It is due to these very techniques that Herb has lectured on a wide variety of topics ranging from Closing Arguments in Litigation Tactics to Dealing with a New Attorney. Herb has even taught classes to subrogation executives, insurance professionals, and attorneys on Investigative Issues and Common Subrogation Problems.

ABOUT KEIS GEORGE

Founded in 1985, Keis George is a subrogation law firm representing insurance companies and self-insured businesses throughout the United States with offices in Cleveland, Chicago, Columbus, and Indianapolis. Our subrogation lawyers have more than 150 years of combined experience pursuing property, auto, and workers' compensation subrogation as well as commercial collections. From prosecuting large loss property files involving fire and explosions to recovering against manufacturers of faulty and defective products, our efficient and comprehensive litigation strategy will redefine what it means to recover your money faster.
