ABOUT ME

Patrick J. O'Malley has more than thirty years of experience as lead counsel defending Fortune 500 insurance companies and national self-insured companies in subrogation claims and cases such as products liability in construction, residential and commercial fires and explosions, and general insurance coverage disputes. Pat collaborates with clients to resolve claims and lawsuits through practical and strategic negotiation, arbitration, mediation, and litigation.

A complex litigator, Pat has tried hundreds of subrogation cases in civil and federal courts with some to verdict in more than ten jurisdictions. Pat's extensive experience and successful dispute resolution tactics allow him to mentor and develop members of the firm. Though Pat takes on special cases, clients will not only benefit from Pat's extensive knowledge of various scientific and mechanical techniques, clients will benefit from the individualized attention and scrupulous devotion he can provide alongside our team of subject-matter experts and support staff.
