ABOUT ME

William H. Keis, Jr. is the managing partner of subrogation systems at Keis George LLP. Bill has more than thirty years of experience as lead counsel, representing Fortune 500 insurance companies in complex cases throughout Ohio.

A complex litigator, Bill has tried hundreds of subrogation cases in civil and federal courts with some to verdict in more than ten jurisdictions since opening the legal practice in 1982. Bill's extensive experience and successful dispute resolution tactics allow him to mentor and develop members of the firm.

Beyond litigation, Bill manages corporate direction and business strategy at Keis George, facilitating firm activity in data management, uninsured motorist claims, and all subrogation systems including but not limited to case management, software, hardware, and security. Under Bill's leadership, Keis George has grown from three employees in one office to more than fifty employees across three states in four offices.

Bill is a 1977 graduate of Cleveland State University where he studied Pre-Law courses, majoring in Political Science. Bill is a 1981 graduate of Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. Bill was admitted to the Ohio Bar in 1982 and was admitted to the U.S. District Court, Northern District of Ohio. Bill is a member of the Cleveland Bar Association, the Ohio State Bar Association, the American Bar Association, and the National Association of Subrogation Professionals.

ABOUT KEIS GEORGE

Founded in 1985, Keis George is a subrogation law firm representing insurance companies and self-insured businesses throughout the United States with offices in Cleveland, Chicago, Columbus, and Indianapolis. Our subrogation lawyers have more than 150 years of combined experience pursuing property, auto, and workers' compensation subrogation as well as commercial collections. From prosecuting large loss property files involving fire and explosions to recovering against manufacturers of faulty and defective products, our efficient and comprehensive litigation strategy will redefine what it means to recover your money faster.
