ABOUT ME

Brad Krapfl is a partner with the law firm Keis George LLP. With a decade experience in the practice of insurance subrogation, Brad has tried more than thirty jury trials and has arbitrated hundreds of subrogation cases. Managing the Chicago, Illinois office and primarily focusing on litigation and appeals within insurance law and insurance defense, Brad is a member of the National Association of Subrogation Professionals and the Chicago Bar Association.

A graduate of the University of Missouri and the Chicago-Kent College of Law, Brad enjoys going to the movies, is an enthusiastic sports fan, and values time with friends and family. Renowned for his ability to uncover and cultivate information that often plays a critical role in the success of a case, Brad has participated in many jury trials and hundreds of arbitrations. A member of the National Association of Subrogation Professionals, he is also a baseball fan and avid golfer.

ABOUT KEIS GEORGE

Founded in 1985, Keis George is a subrogation law firm representing insurance companies and self-insured businesses throughout the United States with offices in Cleveland, Chicago, Columbus, and Indianapolis. Our subrogation lawyers have more than 150 years of combined experience pursuing property, auto, and workers' compensation subrogation as well as commercial collections. From prosecuting large loss property files involving fire and explosions to recovering against manufacturers of faulty and defective products, our efficient and comprehensive litigation strategy will redefine what it means to recover your money faster.
